A Vision By The Heavenly Father God All Mighty

I began with prayer: Thank-you lord for your only begotten son Jesus Christ That he died for my sins and you raised him from the dead, after being a Sacrafice for us sinners, so that we may have Eternal life with you in heaven. Thank-you for dreams and visions. unworthy of love for giving. But Blessed through Christ our Lord to. Communicate, study, TO Pray and be blessed with your glory and holyspirit. A sinner like me, I thank-you for such blessings and the Gift you give in Jesus name I Pray Amen!

My name is Kevin Devon Robinson a unworthy Inmate bless to be alive by Grace of God It was around 2:40am something in the morning, I had just worked out, clean my cell, and washed my body. on April 12, 2017 AT Pontiac, then I prayed and began my daily Spiritual reading of Purpose Driven Life - (P.D.L) Day 4 and my daily Bread and my daily deustion while reading (P.D.L) I remebered part of my prayer Lord what is my Purpose? Please Show me my purpose in life is? and while reading, these questions came from me, and answers within the holyspirit flowed to me. Page 40 of (P.D.L.) While life on earth offers many choices

Page 2 of 3 Eternity offers only two heaven or hell! Page 39 (P.D.L.) states the bible says God has (planted) eternity in the human heart. Ecclesiastes 3 verse 11 (New Living Translation N.L.T.)

Page 41 (P.D.L.) - says Death is not the end of you! Then the questions in my mind came -

1. The Devil is in hell for a period of time, then will be released on the earth. The bible states that the Devil/Lucifer will be thrown into the lake of fire, destroyed killed for good when the second coming of Jesus comes. First the Rapture - God releasing the choosing faithful to be sent to heaven first, leaving behind the last unfaithful

(Q) - So when the Devil is Released from hell, is the people in hell Released too?

(A) - Yes! God is a merciful God, loving, and those who didn't know God or his son, or was in other religions, who had good personality.. kind to others and faithful to others who didn't know God or his son Christ Jesus was sent to hell with sinners ETC. Good people mixed with bad people, But By The Grace of God, Christ dying for our sins, gives them a chance to Repent with sinners who also are in hell along with Lucifer/Devil The Anti Christ. Who ~~also~~ will rule earth with those who were left behind from the Rapture before Christ Comes the second time. The lost and free from hell prisoners will have a chance to repent, while Lucifer/The Anti Christ will rule on earth for a short period of time. (see Proof!) The holy spirit Revealed to me this answer from Isaiah 42 verse 6 thru 7 - I The Lord have called you into righteousness, I will take hold of your hand, I will keep you and will make you to be a Covenant for the people, and a light for the gentiles, to open eyes that are blind, and to free captives from prison and to release from the dungeon those who sit in darkness. Isaiah 42 verse 6 thru 7 shows not only will hell be free but my belief is that those who are in hell are released by God those will repent and preach God's word to the lost/left behind. and will oppose Lucifer/Anti Christ.

Sad but true God will punish us, lost and sinners who die before repenting via-hell,

For a short time, But God will free us along with Lucifer/AntiChrist, to have a Second Chance to repent and have Eternal life with God and Christ in heaven. Thus the End of my thoughts and holy Communication within the holy spirit that night. A vision By God, to a underserved nobody in prison like me, is truly a blessing. As I record this writing for myself and anyone else who may believe in God. One Thing bothers me still how will Lucifer/Anti-christ try to keep those in hell from Repenting before They are Released along with Lucifer/Anti-Christ? and of course his divided Kingdom on earth, with hells repenting Prisoners released from hell fighting against Lucifer/AntiChrist saving and preaching God's word to the Lost/Left behind. Perhaps it may not be God's will to reveal to me the answer yet! But To be thankful for this Revelation from God to a unworthy me Praise be to God and Christ who are in heaven may hallowed be thy name Amen! What a blessing God is Truly Good not just to me but to the world God is Good: AMEN!!
